

Exoterik ready to Break the Mould

EXOTERIK play a rare local gig this weekend as they perform at the Break the Mould Festival.

The gig comes as the Keighley goth band prepares to release debut single Are You Alive?

Exoterik this Saturday join Liverpool experimentals The Mono LPs and Huddersfield hero Roger Davies in Bradford.

The show at the Priestley theatre, Chapel Street, also features up and coming bands and artists.

Break the Mould promises a mind-blowing evening mixing unique material with energetic and uplifting performances.

The new two-track single will be available as a download and on CD with an extra acoustic track.

Are You Alive? is a taster for Exoterik's forthcoming album Don't Swallow, probably available later this year.

There'll be a release party for the single, at the Priestley, on April 26.

Phone 01274 820666 to book for either gig.

Exoterik, who are in Bradford this weekend

[The text in this section is extremely faint and illegible, appearing as a dense block of grey noise.]